

Name of Extension/Public Service (The name of the service being offered)	Project Development and Management
Objective (Description of the service being provided; History of service provision)	This training program helps participants analyze developmental situations by looking into the parameters and perspectives of how the state responds, respects, and fulfills its obligation to attain national development goals and strategies. It also aims to make them understand the processes and requirements of the different phases in planning, managing, monitoring and evaluating developmental projects. Moreover, it enhances their knowledge and skills in undertaking different feasibility studies particularly on market, technical, financial, socio-economic, environmental and organizational aspects of development. This training program was institutionalized and made part of the regular training offerings of the Center under the leadership and administration of Prof. Ebinezer Florano, Ph.D. (Director of the Center, 2013- present).
Duration/Date	Five days/40 hours
Target Beneficiaries	Participants are employees from the private and public sectors.
Cost of Participation	Php 10,000 per participant, inclusive of training materials and meals for five days
Office in Charge	Center for Policy and Executive Development (CPED)
Office Profile Degree granting or non-degree granting Purpose of creation Location in the hierarchy (Background of the office providing the service i.e. Number of personnel and Key personnel providing the service)	CPED is a premier policy think-tank and a research and consulting office at the National College of Public Administration and Governance (NCPAG). It has been extensively involved in capacity development initiatives and institution-building programs in the Philippines and other developing nations. It provides public institutions, non-government organizations, public corporations, and other local institutions and international organizations with the necessary professional expertise to deal with policy issues, executive and administrative development, and the challenges of governance. CPED has designed and implemented training courses and developed instructional materials for national and local governments, non-government organizations, and international government institutions. Currently, the Center is headed by Prof. Ebinezer R. Florano as Director and has five technical staff and three administrative staff.

Awards/recognition received by the office (The awards given by or received by the office offering the service, if any)	CPED is a duly-recognized training institution of the Civil Service Commission of the Philippines.
Official website and Social media accounts (The link to the official website of the service)	https://www.facebook.com/CPEDncpag/ http://ncpag.upd.edu.ph/
External links for documentation (The external links featuring the service [for the electronic copy, e.g. features in newspapers etc.])	https://www.facebook.com/CPEDncpag/
Contact details (The contact details of the head of the unit offering the service: fax, telephone, email, snail mail, map)	Room 105, NCPAG Building R.P. De Guzman Street University of the Philippines Diliman, Quezon City Fax: (632) 9201353 Telephone: (632) 9201353, 981-8500 loc. 4162
Other Remarks	